Written presentation concerning the vacant position in the FDI Education Committee 2024

Herewith I would like to present my candidacy for the vacant position in the Education Committee of the FDI. I strongly believe that I can significantly contribute to the tasks undertaken by the Committee related to education in the field of dentistry.

I am experienced in scientific research and publications being full professor, supervisor and reviewer of numerous PhD theses, Editor-in-chief of the "Journal of Stomatology", the official journal of the Polish Dental Association. Being a university teacher for 25 years, I possess skills in teaching under- and post-graduate students as well as dentists, medical radiologists, radiographers and dental hygienists. In 2021-2022 I completed master's program "Fundamentals of University Teaching and Tutoring programme" as part of Masters of Didactics, Ministry of Education and Science of Poland, carried out by the educators from the University of Groningen in the Netherlands.

As dentomaxillofacial radiologist I merge knowledge from the fields of dentistry and medicine, using a holistic approach, which allows working with a broader perspective.

I am the Past President of the European Academy of Dentomaxillofacial Radiology, the Regional Director for Europe of the International Association of Dentomaxillofacial Radiology, Central Board Member of the Polish Dental Association and Board Member of the Polish Medical Radiological Society. The accomplished tasks undertaken within the frames of these organisations are challenging but at the same time produce the sense of achievement.

Regarding cooperation within the frames of the FDI, in 2019 I was guest speaker at the FDI World Dental Congress San Francisco. In 2021 I delivered a webinar for the FDI Oral Health Campus "Benefits and limitations of Cone-Beam Computed Tomography in Clinical Practice". I am a member of the ERO-FDI Working Group Digitalisation in Dentistry - e-Health-Artificial Intelligence. In 2024 during the FDI WDC in Istanbul I will deliver 2 lectures and one workshop. I also cooperate with the Polish Chamber of Physicians and Dentists in the field of education.

Owing to fluent knowledge of English as well as considerable skills in several other languages, I easily communicate with international colleagues which allows efficient networking.

I shall be most grateful for accepting my candidacy and presenting my submission to the nominating committee.

To whom it may concern

As the Chairmen of the Section of Maxillofacial Radiology of the Polish Medical Radiological Society as well as the Head of the Department of Radiology of the St. Jahn Cancer Center and professor in the Department of Human Anatomy of the Medical University of Lublin, herewith I would like to heartily recommend prof. Ingrid Różyło-Kalinowska for the position in the Education Committee of the Federation Dentaire Internationale.

Prof. Ingrid Różyło-Kalinowska is the Head of the Department of Dental and Maxillofacial Radiology of the Medical University of Lublin prof. Różyło-Kalinowska works as researcher, academic teacher and organizer. Her scientific work includes hundreds of papers and congress contributions. She has been supervisor of 16 completed PhD theses as well as reviewer of 28 PhD theses, including theses of candidates from Belgium, Brazil and Denmark. She is also the Editor in Chief of the "Journal of Stomatology", the oldest Polish dental scientific journal published since 1948. At the same time being the vice-Dean of the Faculty of Medical Dentistry of the Medical University of Lublin, she is most dedicated to work, engaged in all activities related to the position of vice-Dean including supervision of education especially of the English-Division students, international relations of the Faculty, joining numerous workgroups and task force teams set up in order to increase the quality of teaching delivered in the Medical University of Lublin.

In terms of education, prof. Ingrid Różyło-Kalinowska is the leader of educational innovations including simulation teaching in dentomaxillofacial radiology as well as teaching of digital dentistry e.g. merging of intraoral scanning with diagnostic imaging studies. She is supervisor of residents in dental specialties carrying out partial internships in the field of dentomaxillofacial radiology as well as educator at numerous continuous education courses. The Candidate supports junior faculty staff by creating friendly and innovative clinical learning environment.

Prof. Różyło-Kalinowska is known for intense activity in boards of international and national scientific associations. She is the Past President of the European Academy of DentoMaxilloFacial Radiology, the Regional Director of International Association of Dentomaxillofacial in Europe, the former vice-President and current Board Member of the Polish Dental Association, the former Chairman and current vice-Chairman of the Section of DentoMaxillofacial Radiology of the Polish Medical Radiological Society. To whom it may concern

As the Dean of the Ankara University, Faculty of Dentistry, President of Turkish Oral Diagnosis and Maxillofacial Radiology Association, Past President of European Academy of DentoMaxillofacial Radiology, President elect of International Association of Dento-maxillofacial Radiology, Diplomate of the Japanese Board of OMFR, visiting professor at the Faculty of Medical Dentistry of the Medical University of Lublin and Semmelweis University and the Executive Committee Member of the Japanese-Turkish University Association I would like to recommend prof. Ingrid Różyło-Kalinowska from the Faculty of Medical Dentistry of the Medical University of Lublin, Poland for the position in the Education Committee of the FDI.

I have been cooperating with prof. Różyło-Kalinowska for many years in different activities related to dentomaxillofacial radiology such as common scientific research, recently focused on applications of artificial intelligence in dentomaxillofacial radiology, co-editing and co-authorship of textbooks (including “Imaging of Temporomandibular Joint” published by Springer editorial house in 2019), work in the Board of the European Academy of Dentomaxillofacial Radiology, work in Editorial Boards of international journals, as well as organisation of numerous courses in Poland, Turkey and other European countries.

Being visiting professor in the Faculty of Medical Dentistry of the Medical University of Lublin in Poland, where Prof. Różyło-Kalinowska has been working for 25 years, I could observe how dedicated she is to daily work in the Dental School in all the aspects including scientific research, teaching and organisational works including the current position of the vice-Dean of the Faculty.

Prof. Różyło-Kalinowska is a very hard working person, focused on settled goals, smoothly proceeding with further steps of the academic career. Being deeply engaged in professional activities at the same time she is perceived by the peers and students as a very warm person, easily establishing contacts, helpful and supportive. She is open-minded and performs very well in networking with international professional colleagues as well as English-Division students.

As the President of Turkish Oral Diagnosis and Maxillofacial Radiology Association I would like to add that recently prof. Różyło-Kalinowska has been granted the title of the Honorary Member of the Association due to her dedication to cooperation with the Turkish community of dentomaxillofacial radiologists.

To sum up, I sincerely recommend Prof. Ingrid Różyło-Kalinowska for the position in the Education Committee of the FDI.
