Letter of Motivation for Council of FDI
Jina Lee Linton, Rep of Korea

Jina Lee Linton, a board-certified orthodontist in Seoul Korea since 1991, graduated from Yonsei University with a DDS and earned her master's degree at Columbia University. She started her private practice in Korea and completed her PhD while raising three children. She has served as president of the Korean Women Dentists Association and vice president of the Korean Dental Association. Currently, she is the project manager for the Korean Academy of Geriatric Dentistry, working on developing diagnostic criteria for oral frailty.

She served as a board member of Women Dentists Worldwide of FDI for six years, during which time WDW not only attracted more active members, but opened a platform for women leadership and networking.

She also served as a member of the Dental Practice Committee for six years and collaborated with other members of DPC in generating or revising three to four policy statements annually on various issues in dentistry. She played a leading role in revising Ethics in Dentistry policy and Advertisement in Dentistry policy. In collaboration with other committees within FDI, she took an advising role on management of Cleft Lip and Cleft Palate statement, and joined AI (Artificial Intelligence) working group and attributed to the publication of white paper on AI. Most recently, she worked with EHR (Electronic Health Records) task team of FDI and helped draft a consensus statement on integrated electronic health records.

To date, she has dedicated herself to advancing the ethics, art, science, and practice of dentistry. She now aspires to continue promoting optimal oral and general health for all individuals in her role as a councillor of FDI.
